EOB CARES SPOTLIGHT

CTECS STUDENT CONGRESS CARES

On Monday, February 27th, representatives from seven of the technical high schools met at O'Brien to put together care packages to be distributed to each school's local homeless shelter. This was a project that was spearheaded by O'Brien's own Student Congress President, Kyle Monteiro. Each school was tasked with fundraising one item that would be included in the bags.

All seven schools came with a wealth of donated supplies from deodorant, toothbrushes, toothpaste, soap, brushes, blankets, and first aid kits. The students also wrote notes of encouragement to include in each bag. The bags will be hand delivered to our local shelter. Great job Student Congress!

DIGITAL MEDIA STUDIO RELEASES FIRST PROJECT

The first production from the Digital Media Studio has been completed! The IT students (Class of 2023) produced a video through learning a variety of media equipment (TriCaster Production System, TV cameras, Teleprompter, Soundboard, lighting, etc.) and edited the video using Adobe Premiere Pro and After Effects. The Production, "Still I Rise" was done for Black History Month and involved students from the Class of 2023.

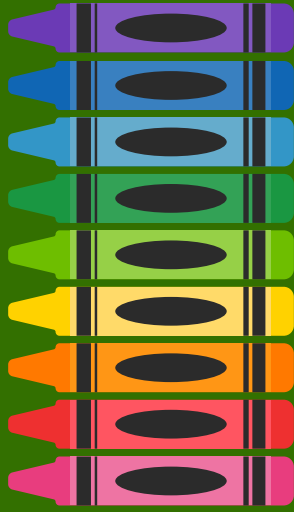

- Student Performers: Chanelle Moore, Kimberly Cope, Jonathan Ulysse and Jahmir Tucker
- Production and Editing students (IT Shop): Alirio Zapata, Jordan Goodman, Hunter Juhasz, Joey Spinelli and Chanelle Moore.

Sophomore Mia "Em" Santacapita has been doing some wonderful artwork in Mr. Brennan's English class for her Shop Cycle Projects. Em chooses to paint rather than draw her artwork.

Please enjoy this young artist's talent!
