NEW ENTRANCE SIGNAGE

Signage donated by the Class of 2023 now decorates our entry!

CARNEGIE PIANO RECITAL

Special Education Department Head Mr. Benjamin Dix performed a piano concert at Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall in New York City. The performance proceeds will benefit the Families of Freedom Scholarship Fund, which provides for and supports dependents of people lost or permanently disabled by the 9/11 terrorist attacks. The program included works by Chopin, Mozart, and Weber.

WORLD OF COLOR

Junior art classes are working on producing their own color wheels using different patterns.

ATRIUM TRIP

The Student Leadership classes took a "field trip" to the atrium to admire the new banners and discuss the 6 components of the CTECS Vision of a Graduate, which are elements of the 12th grade portfolios.

CO-ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

The Soccer Program coached by Coach Arturo Solís-Gereda and Coach Peter Silva is happy to nominate and honor two Juniors as EOB'S Athletes of the Week!

Michelina Sardo who has 1 goal and 3 assists and Olivia Scarlata (top photo) has one goal, and Michelina Sardo (bottom photo) has one goal and three assists.

Both athletes are working hard at the VARSITY level. Great job girls!

EOB SOCCER GOES PINK

The soccer team is stepping up to fight against cancer!

Coach Solis and Coach Pete Silva makes sure everyone throughout the month of October shows their support in the fight against breast cancer.

A big thank you to Coach Silva who painted the pink ribbon on the field. Great job soccer team!

The football team has a big game Saturday, October 21st, against Cheney Tech at our athletic complex. Come out and support our football team and watch our cheerleaders as they are ready to perform for the team and their fans! Game time, 10:30am.

OPEN HOUSE PREP

EOB Athletics are ready for open house with this great poster!

WE HAVE A WINNER!

Raffle winners from this week's extended faculty meeting!

GREAT WORK

Mrs. Schryver, Mr. Dix, and Mrs. Marra were recognized with a faculty merit award for all of their hard work this month based on student and staff nominations. Congratulations!

EOB IS NO PLACE FOR HATE

Seniors Mariah Roque, Ava Sharkey, and Navoni Harris worked with Mrs. Daria to present the annual "No Place For Hate" anti-bullying presentation to our freshmen classes.

CAREER PATHWAY PROGRAM PRESENTATION

EOB graduate Kaylene Kezer (PMT, not pictured) stopped by along with other members of the local Teamsters 1150/Sikorsky Career Pathway Program to give a presentation to trade students. They provided information on an internship that students in PMT, Auto, HVAC, Electrical, and Carpentry can participate in for eight weeks as either a Sophomore and a Junior. If students are successful, they can possibly receive an offer to work with Sikorsky after Senior year!
